

Health and safety policy statement

Prepared under Section 2 (3) of the Health and Safety at Work, etc Act 1974

At Lifesaver First Aid Services we consider the health, safety and welfare of our staff, volunteers, customers, patients, delegates and other members of the public to be of paramount importance. A safe and healthy working environment is a vital part of achieving our ongoing goal to promote excellence in first aid and medical services.

Through the implementation of the Health and Safety policy, the Board of Directors are committed to the following objectives:

- ✓ To appoint responsible and competent persons, as required by the Health and Safety at Work, etc Act 1974 and empower them in their roles throughout the organisation.
- ✓ To provide, as far as reasonably practicable, a safe and healthy working environment, safe premises and facilities for staff, volunteers and visitors.
- ✓ To create a working environment where potential work-related stressors are avoided, minimised or mitigated through good management practices, effective human resources policies and staff development, as far as reasonably practicable.
- ✓ To ensure that all staff and volunteers are aware of their health and safety responsibilities and know what is expected of them in their role.
- ✓ To ensure that staff have access to appropriate training and development for them to competently and safely undertake their role.
- ✓ To commit appropriate resources (finance, time, personnel, infrastructure and equipment) to the management and development of health and safety at all levels.
- ✓ To have an effective system for communicating and consulting on health and safety matters, either directly with the workforce or via appointed representatives.
- ✓ To have in place arrangements to plan, implement, monitor and review measures to address risks arising from our activities.
- ✓ To strive to continuously improve our health and safety performance, measuring our progress against agreed performance standards and current best practice.

Signed, for and on behalf of, Lifesaver First Aid Services,

Ben Robinson
